

An Internship with Orrick

Orrick offers paid internship opportunities for outstanding law students to work in our Corporate (Beijing and Shanghai offices) and Intellectual Property (Beijing office) Groups.

This is a fully paid 6 or 12 month internship. Offers of permanent employment may be made to successful interns upon satisfactory completion of their internship.

The Orrick internship will enable you to gain practical experience with a busy, dynamic and fast-growing international law firm and work on cutting-edge transactions. You will be given broad exposure to our firm's numerous practice areas and opportunities to participate in the firm's legal training programs.

As an intern, your responsibilities will cover a wide range of projects, including:

- Conducting legal research
- Preparing legal memoranda
- Drafting corporate and transaction documents in Chinese and English

How to Apply

To be eligible for the Orrick internship in China, you must meet the following criteria:

- Top 5% student from a leading law school in China
- Native Chinese speaker with advanced reading and writing skills
- High level of fluency in English (written and spoken)
- Capable of quality legal research and writing
- Commercially aware, detail-oriented and a quick learner
- Willing to work in a team and in a high-pressure environment

Please email the respective office contact, listed below, with your resume, cover letter, transcript(s), English writing samples and references or visit www.orrick.com/careers for more information.
