

Robert F. DiMarsico

Managing Director at Poseidon Capital Corp., and
Senior Shipping Advisor at FTI Consulting

Bob's background comprises over thirty years of experience in maritime finance, including twelve years with Marine Midland Bank in Hong Kong and New York, ultimately with primary responsibility for maritime financing in the Americas. During his time at Marine Midland, Bob was involved in all phases of the financing process including substantial workout experience during the 1980's.

In partnership with a founder and former CFO of the Overseas Shipholding Group, he established Marine Equity Corporation, a financial services intermediary to the shipping industry. Thereafter, he joined the CIT Group where he co-managed two major loan recovery efforts, following which he became the head of CIT's Maritime Finance Group.

Together with two partners in 1998, Bob founded Poseidon Capital, a financial advisory firm based in New York and focused exclusively on the maritime industry. Since its inception, Poseidon has been engaged in a broad array of capital raising and advisory assignments including substantial restructuring work.

Bob holds an MBA from New York University.
