

Camillo Melotti Caccia

Associate

Milan

T +39 02 4541 3800

E cmelotti@orrick.com

Practice Areas

- Tax
- International Tax

Education

- Second Level Master, Tax Litigation, Business School of Il Sole 24 Ore, Milan, Italy, 2011
- Master, Milano, Business School "Il Sole 24 Ore", 2010
- Master, Tax Law, Business School of Il Sole 24 Ore, Milan, Italy, 2010
- LL.M., International Maritime Law, Swansea University Law School (U.K.), 2006, Distinction Basis
- J.D., Facoltà di Giurisprudenza, Università degli Studi di Genova, 2003

Memberships

- Genoa Bar Association

Camillo Melotti Caccia is an Italian qualified lawyer located in the Milan office and a member of the Tax Group. He focuses on domestic and international taxation and tax litigation. He also deals with the tax aspects concerning financial transactions, securitization and financing activities.

After graduating in Law from the University of Genoa in 2003, he was awarded: on a Distinction basis, an LL.M. in "International Maritime Law" by the Swansea University Law School (U.K.) in 2006; a Master's degree in "Tax Law" by "Il Sole 24 Ore Business School" in 2010; a Second Level Master's degree in "Tax Litigation" in 2011.

Before joining Orrick, he worked as a lawyer with Crowe Horwath LLP and MSC Mediterranean Shipping Company S.A. and he was a visiting foreign lawyer in Ince & Co's London office.

Camillo is admitted to the Genoa Bar.

Languages

- Italian
- English

Admissions

- Italy