

Cecile Renaud

Associate

London

T

E crenaud@orrick.com

Cécile Renaud is a corporate lawyer admitted as an Avocat at the Paris Bar and as a Solicitor of England and Wales

Practice Areas

- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Corporate

Education

- LL.M. - Master of Laws, London School of Economics and Political Science, 2013, Merit
- Master 2, Droit des Affaires et Fiscalité et DJCE, Université Montesquieu Bordeaux 4, 2012, Mention bien

Cécile's practice covers mergers and acquisitions, private equity, restructuring operations and corporate-related issues.

Her work includes advising investment funds, groups and companies in several industry sectors, including renewables.

Cécile has notably acquired experience in advising on the acquisition and disposal, by French or foreign investors, of French companies active in the sector of the renewable energies (solar and wind) and on group restructuring. She has also gained international experience, particularly on cross-border transactions involving the carve-out and disposal of multi-jurisdictional activities.

Languages

- French
- English

Admissions

- Paris
- England and Wales