

Charles Briand

Partner

Paris

T +33 1 5353 7248

E cbriand@orrick.com

Charles Briand, Partner in Orrick Paris Office, is a member of the Tax Group.

Practice Areas

- Tax

Honors

- Recognized in Legal 500 EMEA 2020 as Next Generation Partner, category Tax (Transactional/Corporate Tax)

Education

- Maîtrise, Business Law and Tax Law, Université Paris II Panthéon-Assas, 2003
- DEA, Tax, Université Paris II Panthéon-Assas, 2004

Charles focuses on tax law, and more specifically on the tax aspects of transactions.

He advises multinational companies and private equity funds on a broad range of international tax matters, including French acquisitions abroad or foreign ones in France.

He also advises his clients on the tax structuring of domestic and cross border acquisitions as well as reorganizations.

Prior to joining Orrick in 2017, Charles was transaction Tax lawyer at Ernst & Young in Paris and he also practiced 18 months in EY New York office.

Languages

- English
- French

Admissions

- Paris