

Diana Gillis

Of Counsel

Washington, D.C.

T +1 202 339 8511

E dgillis@orrick.com

Practice Areas

- Antitrust & Competition

Honors

- Federal Trade Commission Stephen Nye Award, 2015
- Georgetown Journal of Legal Ethics
- Phi Beta Kappa
- Pi Sigma Alpha Honor Society

Education

- J.D., Georgetown University Law Center, 2010
- B.A., Public Policy and Political Science, Hobart and William Smith Colleges, 2004, magna cum laude

Diana focuses her practice on antitrust law, specializing in Hart-Scott-Rodino (HSR) Act pre-merger notification compliance and counseling. Her experience includes advising clients on issues of reportability and interpretations of the HSR Act and regulations.

Prior to joining the firm, Diana was an attorney in the Premerger Notification Office with the U.S. Federal Trade Commission, where she concentrated on HSR notification compliance and review. While at the FTC, Diana received the Stephen Nye Award for outstanding service.

Prior to the Federal Trade Commission, Diana was an antitrust associate at Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP's Washington, D.C., office.

Publications

- Co-Author, "Antitrust Pitfalls in Hiring and Employment Practices," The Antitrust Counselor Vol. 7.2 (Mar. 2013)
- Co-Author, "Does it Matter Which Agency—FTC or DOJ—Reviews a Merger? Recent Statistical Evidence," The Threshold Vol. XII NO. 1 (Fall 2012)
- Co-Author, "No HSR Filing Doesn't Mean No Antitrust Concern," Law360 (Oct. 26, 2012)
- Co-Author, "FTC Again Warns Investors Against "Abuse" of Investment-Only HSR Exemption," VC Experts (Sept. 27, 2012)
- Co-Author, "Plea Agreements With Antitrust Division Post-VandeBrake," Law360 (May 15, 2012)

Speeches and Programs

- "Merger Notification for Private Equity Acquisitions," ABA seminar, February 2019
- "HSR Back to Basics," ABA seminar, April 2017

Admissions

- District of Columbia