

Elise Durand

Managing Associate

Paris

T

E edurand@orrick.com

Elise Durand is a competition lawyer in Orrick's Paris office

Practice Areas

- Antitrust & Competition

Education

- LL.M., Competition Law, King's College London
- Master 2, Droit de l'Union Européenne, Université Paris II Panthéon – Assas

Elise's practice focuses on all aspects of French and EU competition law, including both transactional and litigation cases: merger control, antitrust, and state aid. She has worked on cases involving various sectors, including financial services, energy, retail and pharma.

Prior to joining Orrick, Elise interned with the competition department of Allen & Overy, DLA Piper and Norton Rose Fulbright and with the Directorate General for Competition of the European Commission.

Languages

- French
- English

Admissions

- Paris