

Monica A. Svetoslavov

Associate

Washington, D.C.

T +1 202 339 8485

E [m Svetoslavov@orrick.com](mailto:m Svetoslavov@orrick.com)

Monica Svetoslavov is an associate in the Washington, D.C., office and a member of the firm's Litigation practice group.

Practice Areas

- Antitrust (Cartels)
- Antitrust/Intellectual Property
- Complex Litigation & Dispute Resolution
- Cyber, Privacy & Data Innovation
- White Collar, Investigations, Securities Litigation & Compliance

Honors

- Member, Federal Communications Law Journal
- Order of the Coif

Education

- J.D., The George Washington University Law School, 2017, with high honors
- B.A., Economics, International Affairs, The George Washington University, 2008, cum laude

Monica's practice includes representing multinational corporations in litigation involving commercial, antitrust, cybersecurity, and intellectual property issues.

Prior to and during law school, Monica worked as a consultant on economic issues in mergers and antitrust litigation. She also worked as a senior research analyst on macroeconomic forecasting at the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve.

Publications

- Jon Direnfeld, David Cohen and Monica Svetoslavov, "FTC Cybersecurity Cases Highlight Benefits, Risks Of Settling," Law360 (Aug. 23, 2019)

Admissions

- District of Columbia