

Saira Henry

Senior Associate

London

T +44 20 7862 4632

E shenry@orrick.com

Saira Henry is a Senior Associate in the Firm's Antitrust & Competition group in London.

Practice Areas

- Antitrust & Competition

Honors

- Recommended individual: EU and competition, UK Legal 500 2021

Education

- Legal Practice Course, BPP Law School, 2010
- LL.M., European Law, University of Surrey, Distinction
- LL.B. (Hons), Law and European Studies, University of Surrey

Memberships

- Law Society of Ireland
- The Law Society's Competition Section
- Law Society of England and Wales

Saira advises on EU and UK competition law matters, including merger control and anti-competitive conduct (cartels, abuse of dominance and other restrictions on competition).

She has acted for clients in a broad range of sectors, including in the technology, telecommunications, consumer goods, energy and financial sectors.

Client testimonials from Legal 500 UK's 2021 edition include the following: "Saira Henry excels in her command of legal analyses. Very good at handling complex and difficult legal issues and has a good oversight of all aspects of a case. Combines analytical skills and creativity with significant industry knowledge and is very solution oriented." She has been referred to as a "true standout" and her work as "excellent."

Saira undertook a secondment at the UK's Competition and Markets Authority from December 2018 – May 2019.

Saira previously worked at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP in their Brussels office as an associate.

Languages

- English
- French

Admissions

- Ireland
- England and Wales